

Dear Students:

Please answer the following questions to help us evaluate the humanities component of the family medicine clerkship's session on intimate partner violence:

1. Did reading the literary selections and watching the film clips add anything or complement in any way the didactic material presented?

1	2	3	4	5
Not at all	A little bit	Somewhat	A fair amount	A great deal

If so, how? _____

2. Did you learn anything about victims of intimate partner violence from reading the literary selections and watching the film clips?

1	2	3	4	5
No	A little bit	A few things	A fair number of things	A lot of things

If so, what? _____

3. 4. Did you learn anything about perpetrators of intimate partner violence from reading the literary selections and watching the film clips?

1	2	3	4	5
No	A little bit	A few things	A fair number of things	A lot of things

If so, what? _____

4. 3. Did you learn anything about yourself from reading the literary selections and watching the film clips?

1	2	3	4	5
No	A little bit	A few things	A fair number of things	A lot of things

If so, what? _____

5. Did reading the literary selections and watching the film clips increase your empathy for victims of intimate partner violence in any way?

1 2 3 4 5
Not at all A little bit Somewhat A fair amount A great deal

If so, how? _____

6. Did reading the literary selections and watching the film clips increase your empathy for perpetrators of intimate partner violence in any way?

1 2 3 4 5
Not at all A little bit Somewhat A fair amount A great deal

If so, how? _____

7. Is there anything you might do differently in terms of formulating a treatment plan and management of a victim of intimate partner violence after reading the literary selections and watching the film clips?

1 2 3 4 5
Not at all A little bit Somewhat A fair amount A great deal

If so, what? _____

Thank you very much for your cooperation!

Patricia Lenahan, LCSW
Johanna Shapiro, Ph.D.