

INTERGENERATIONAL PHOTO-NARRATIVE PROJECT & THE SCRIBE EXHIBITION

PRESENTED BY: HEALING THROUGH HUMANITIES

WHAT: HtH will be showcasing its 2020-2021 Intergenerational Photo-narrative project, which provided a venue for virtual companionship and collaboration between undergraduate students, Regents Point residents, and Vitas Hospice Care patients.

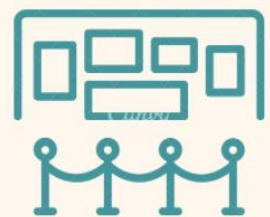

WHEN: SATURDAY, NOV 13TH FROM 2-5 PM

WHERE: UCI STUDENT CENTER, DOHENY BEACH BCD

ADDRESS: 311 W PELTASON DR # A, IRVINE, CA 92697

The exhibition will display printed photos and narratives of geriatric resident life stories, in addition to guest speakers reflecting on their experience in the project. We will also be distributing The Scribe's printed publication.

The first hour will consist of guest speakers. The rest of the time is for people to view the photo-narratives and converse with each other. Guests are welcome to come and leave as they wish. Food and drinks will be provided.

If you are driving to the UCI Student Center, you can park in the Student Center parking lot. Parking costs $2/hr.

