

DEPARTMENT OF FAMILY MEDICINE
CLINIC/BEHAVIORAL SCIENCE
EVALUATION FORM

Resident Name: _____ Clinic: 29A CCOC

Program Year: 1 2 3 Reporting Period: 1 2 3

Evaluating Faculty: _____ Year: _____

Please evaluate the resident's performance using the following scale:

1. Not demonstrating or not attempting this objective.
 2. Minimal demonstration or mastery of this objective.
 3. Attempting or demonstrating objective but not yet mastered.
 4. Partial mastery or partially competent in objective.
 5. Demonstrates competence or mastery of objective.
- NO/NA Not observed or not applicable.
ID Insufficient data.

I. General Professionalism

- ___ A. Arrives punctually for scheduled clinic activities.
- ___ B. Professional in appearance and manner.
- ___ C. Professional and cordial in relationships with faculty, nurses, office staff, and coworkers.

II. Subjective Data Collection

- ___ A. Appropriately introduces self to patients.
- ___ B. Elicits information from patients which is pertinent or relevant to problem.
- ___ C. Conducts interview in a manner which maintains confidentiality.
- ___ D. Appropriately uses open or closed-ended questions.
- ___ E. Maintains eye contact.
- ___ F. Demonstrates sensitivity to verbal and nonverbal cues.
- ___ G. Appropriately uses listening skills, gestures or facial expressions.
- ___ H. Explores emotional or psychological issues/concerns appropriately.
- ___ I. Presentations are clear, concise and organized.
- ___ J. Presentations demonstrate thorough collection of information.
- ___ K. Demonstrates awareness of impact environment, family, and social network or patient problem.

III. Objective Data Collection

- ___ A. Conducts appropriate and relevant physical exams.
- ___ B. Makes appropriate use of lab and other tests as indicated.

- ___ C. Demonstrates appropriate technique on part of physical exam (pelvic exams, etc.).
- ___ D. Properly informs patients of procedures, risks/benefits and obtains proper consent.
- ___ E. Competently performs most outpatient procedures.
- ___ F. Makes appropriate use of chaperons.

IV. Decision Making

- ___ A. Arrives at appropriate differential diagnosis for level of training.
- ___ B. Demonstrates medical knowledge base appropriate for level of training.
- ___ C. Recognizes common psychological diagnoses.
- ___ D. Utilizes consultants appropriately.
- ___ E. Specifies appropriate additional tests or workup needed.

V. Treatment Planning

- ___ A. Articulates appropriate options, therapeutic plans and rationale for treatment.
- ___ B. Anticipates outcome of treatment (short and long-term).
- ___ C. Anticipates and instructs patients in appropriate health maintenance activities.
- ___ D. Demonstrates ability to manage common conditions with a psychological component (depression, anxiety, stress, etc.).

VI. Implementation Treatment Plan

- ___ A. Assesses patients' willingness to comply and discusses patients' reservations.
- ___ B. Discusses and instructs patients in specific actions needed to implement plan.
- ___ C. Involves others (family, health professionals, etc.) appropriately in treatment plan.
- ___ D. Appropriately follows up patients, labs, etc.
- ___ E. Demonstrates effective skills as patient educator.

Comments: _____

