

Objectives:

- Apply improvisational acting skills to mitigate stressful circumstances
- Express a clear consciousness of others as applied to understanding a patient's emotional state
- Create an acute sense of self-awareness thereby freeing the individual to focus on the patient interview
- Integrate listening skills into daily clinical encounters
- Strengthen one's ability to receive and respond appropriately to emotional cues (e.g. facial expression and body language)