

Dr. J - "N".
STUDENT QUES
7-10-91
500:665thor
Hickman

INTERVIEW QUESTIONS
MEDICAL STUDENT RESEARCH PROJECT

STUDENT QUESTIONS

1. What motivated you to become involved in a research project?
 - a. What is it about the discovery of new knowledge that appeals to you? _____

2. What interested you about the particular topic you chose?
(Why did you choose this particular topic?) _____

3. What factors influenced your choice of a faculty supervisor?
(Why did you choose this particular supervisor?) _____

4. What are your expectations of yourself during this project?

5. What are your expectations of your faculty supervisor?
 - a. critical function _____

 - b. supportive function _____

6. What do you expect to have accomplished by the end of the project? _____

7. How do you see this project contributing to your future career plans? _____

8. What have you accomplished so far on your project? _____

9. In what aspects of the project do you anticipate the greatest problems? _____

10. Have you run into any difficulties so far? What are they? _____

11. What have you enjoyed the most so far about your project? _____

12. What have you learned at this point?

a. Content: _____

b. About the process of research: _____

FACULTY ADVISOR QUESTIONNAIRE

Name _____

Prior Research Experience: 1 2 3 4 5
 None Little Moderate Fairly Extensive
 Extensive

What interests you about doing research? _____

Why are you interested in participating in this particular research program? _____

What influence do you think this research program might have on the department? _____

What relationship, if any, does participation in this research program have to your future career goals? _____

What do you think the faculty advisor's role is in this program? _____

What are your expectations for your student? _____

What do you think you will learn by participating in this project? _____

What sort of problems do you anticipate which might hinder successful execution of the project? _____

