

Survey Outline

Please answer the following:

1. I have personally experienced opioid addiction.
 - i. Yes (answer i-iii) After attending this event, I feel more comfortable reflecting on my experience with addiction.

1	2	3	4	5
Not at all		Somewhat		A great deal
 - ii. After attending this event, I feel more comfortable communicating my experience with addiction. (1-5)
 - iii. After attending this event, I feel more comfortable seeking treatment (1-5)
- B. No (move on to 2)
2. I have a family member or close friend who has experienced opioid addiction.
 - i. A. Yes (answer i-iii) After attending this event, I feel I can better understand the experience of addiction. (1-5)
 - ii. After attending this event, I feel more comfortable communicating my feelings about the impact of a friend or family member's experience with addiction. (1-5)
 - iii. After attending this event, I feel I more comfortable playing a role in someone else's treatment (ie. Attending family therapy). (1-5)
- B. No (move on to 3)
3. I am a physician or healthcare worker and treat or counsel individuals who have experienced opioid addiction.
 - A. Yes (answer i-ii)
 - i. After attending this event, I feel I can better empathize with the experience of addiction. (1-5)
 - ii. After attending this event, I feel more comfortable treating and counseling individuals who have experienced addiction and their families. (1-5)
 - B. No (move on to 4)
4. I am a medical student who has cared for or likely will care for patients who have experienced opioid addiction.
 - A. Yes (answer i-ii)
 - i. After attending this event, I feel I can better empathize with the experience of addiction. (1-5)
 - ii. After attending this event, I feel more comfortable treating and counseling individuals who have experienced addiction and their families. (1-5)
 - B. No (move on to 5)
5. I attended the event, but do not identify with any of the above categories.
 - i. Yes (answer i) After attending this event, I feel I can better empathize with the experience of addiction. (1-5)
 - B. No (move on to 6)
6. The panel was a valuable component of this experience (1-5)
7. The discussion following the performance was meaningful to me (1-5)

8. This play reading was a valuable way of conveying the experience of addiction (1-5)
9. The performing arts are a helpful way of learning about discussing social and medical issues (1-5).
10. I would be interested in attending similar events in the future (1-5).
11. Lastly, please provide some general demographic information to help us understand our audience.
 - A. Please indicate your age (drop down menu of numbers)
 - B. Please indicate the gender you identify with (M/F/write in)