

FM REVIEW 2009-2012 7

COMMENTS TO EDITOR: Definitely accept. The author writes very well, and tells a moving story, not only about her grandmother but about different styles of doctoring and how they affect patient and family. She did an excellent job of addressing reviewer suggestions.

COMMENTS TO AUTHOR: Thank you for your thoughtful additions based on reviewer comments. This is a touching and illuminating story. I think our readership will be better for having read it.
