

FM REVIEW COMMENTS2009-2012 23

COMMENTS TO EDITOR: I recommend publication of XX and rejection of the remaining submissions. XX did not like these poems at all, which was disappointing, but points to how subjective evaluation of poetry is. I liked several of them, but agree with the second reviewer that XX is probably best, especially for our journal as its theme is perhaps more relatable for our readership.

COMMENTS TO AUTHOR: These were poems I enjoyed, particularly XX seems most suited to our readership. It has a lovely cadence and is both ironic and moving.
